Joyce Maudie, the 2013 CCC Coach of the Year just completed her seventh year as the head coach at Roger Williams University. Under Maudie’s leadership, RWU claimed the 2013 CCC championship and picked up their first win in NCAA Tournament history. Maudie’s teams have made the playoffs each of their seven years, finishing 2nd in 2016 and 2017. As a former coach at Divisions I, II and III, Maudie reached her 500th career victory in the 2017 season. She has earned five Coach of the Year Awards.

Lauren Tierney is in her fifth year on the RWU Coaching staff after a stellar career as a catcher for the Hawks. Tierney was named the 2013 CCC Player of the Year on the field and co-CCC Senior Scholar Athlete of the Year. Tierney graduated from RWU in 2013, with a Finance and Spanish degree, while maintaining a 3.8 GPA. Tierney is employed at Roger Williams as a valued member of the development staff.

Erica Castro returns for her sixth season as the assistant coach for the Softball team. As a former infielder and 2-time co-captain for the Hawks, Castro started in all 170 games in her career. She finished with a .302 batting average over her four years and totaled 74 runs batted in. Castro was a defensive force tallying a program-high 22 turned double plays and finishing her career with 343 assists. She earned All-Commonwealth Coast Conference honors in all four years with the Hawks. Castro graduated from RWU with a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing, with a concentration in design. Castro completed her Master’s Degree in Sport Administration in 2017 from Northeastern University.
